

2022 YEAR IN REVIEW

At C&S Wholesale Grocers, we have an integral role in serving our country's most important infrastructure. From our distribution centers to our offices — our teams help feed our families, our neighbors and our communities.

It's our passion to continuously make our communities better that fuels our efforts to:

- Keep our communities fed — that means every person, including those facing food insecurity and hunger;
- Support the health and well-being of our children; and
- Do business in a way that protects and improves the environment, so that we can all enjoy a healthy future.
